Dear Jerry:

I wish to note Bangkok Bureau's appreciation for the fine effort outgoing Senior Editor [redacted] registered during the July-August underlap and transition periods between Deputy Chiefs [redacted] In addition to his own duties as full-time desk editor, senior online editor and firstline monitor supervisor, [redacted] capably performed full chief editor duties during the period, including maintaining an editorial file review, and trained two newly-arrived editors in bureau operations. Throughout the transition [redacted] backstopped the bureau's full operational program in a successful effort to maintain full readiness and responsiveness to consumer interest. His support to the incoming deputy chief was informative, comprehensive and graceful.

In smoothing the transition period [redacted] contributed many hours of his own time. This is particularly appreciated in view of the fact that [redacted] himself was faced with end-of-tour packout responsibilities and concerns at this time.

[REDACTED]

Dear Dani,

The services you have rendered to the East Germany Program during your summer internship in FBIS are greatly appreciated. With your good knowledge of German you have made a valuable contribution to this program.

We hope that you have found this assignment an enlightening and profitable experience and that you will consider the possibility of returning to FBIS as a staff employee in the near future.

In the meantime we wish you success in your academic work and in all your endeavors.

Dear George,

On behalf of FBIS, particularly those among us who have had the opportunity to work with you during your many years of dedicated service, I extend best wishes on your retirement. My colleagues and I wish you every success and happiness for the future.

Your efforts in coping with the frequent world crises that have faced the Monitoring Service over the course of your tenure as head of the Reception Department have been of inestimable value and greatly appreciated. We have considered you a friend of FBIS who has been understanding of our needs and willing to accommodate these needs. You will be sorely missed. It has been a pleasure to have been associated with you, both personally and professionally.

Sincerely,

Dear Beverly,

As your summer assignment in FBIS draws to a close, I wish to commend you for your excellent work. Your diligence in carrying out your assigned tasks at the Joint Publications Research Service of Production Group and your cheerful willingness to pitch in wherever needed earned the appreciation of the Publications Section and the USSR Desk and made you a most welcome addition to the JPRS staff.

I hope that this summer with JPRS has been interesting and pleasant and has enhanced your work experience. Your colleagues have enjoyed working with you, Beverly, and join me in wishing you the very best in the coming school year as you attend the Washington School for Secretaries.
